

For those of you who attended the 30th Annual Horse Breeders and Owners Conference in January, you may have experienced some problems with the hotel. The Capri Centre had recently changed to the Sheraton Red Deer, which created problems in reservations and food service.

HIAA reviewed the conference evaluations and heard your complaints. Earlier this month, we sat down with Jeannine Tattari, Director of Catering, and Gil Vallee, the General Manager of the Sheraton Red Deer to share your feedback and concerns. After a very constructive meeting, we are confident that the problems experienced this year will be resolved for 2013.

Gil Vallee prepared a letter for the delegates of the 2012 conference. You can read it here .

HIAA looks forward to working with the Sheraton Red Deer in the coming year. We are excited for the 31st Annual Horse Breeders and Owners Conference, taking place January 11-13 2013 at the Sheraton Red Deer.
