

The National Farm Animal Care Council (NFACC) is conducting a survey to gain stakeholder insights on the Codes of Practice and views on the care and handling of equine. Revisions to the Equine Code of Practice are projected to be finished in 2013. Please take their survey and add your voice to the process. The survey takes ten minutes to complete.

To take the survey and to learn more about the Code of Practice, visit the NFACC website .