

Through a rigorous selection process, the team representing Alberta in the upcoming Canadian Interprovincial Equestrian Championships (CIEC September 13 – 15, 2013) and held at Rocky Mountain Show Jumping, Calgary, Alberta, have been selected.

The disciplines participating at the CIEC are Dressage, Jumping and Reining, all Federation Equestre International (FEI) sports with both junior and senior participants.

The Alberta Equestrian Federation is pleased to present the team Alberta members. This year, our Alberta ladies will be showing skill, talent and determination against equally qualified competitors from the other provinces. "We are extremely proud of all our Team Alberta members that worked so hard over the past few months to secure a spot on Team Alberta," says Les Oakes, AEF President , "our selection committee had a difficult time reviewing all of the applications; everyone was very close to qualifying."

The Alberta team is made up of the following team members. In Dressage, the junior members are: Annie Coward, Calgary, age 13 and Samantha Mills based in Calgary, age 17. Senior members are: Mary-Anne Eeuwes, Calgary, age 26 and Carol Hall, Calgary, age 51. The Dressage Coach is Doreen Horsey, Calgary. Doreen Horsey is an Equine Canada Senior Dressage judge and a licensed USEF "S"

Judge and involved with Dressage Canada and an accomplished national rider to Grand Prix level.
