

The Livestock Identification and Commerce General Regulation was proclaimed in force January 1, 2009. For horse owners, this means that livestock manifests are no longer required to transport horses within Alberta unless the horse is being transported for sale or slaughter or to an inspection site. For complete information...